A COMPLETE DESIGN-BUILD CUSTOM HOME PROCESS

When you work with Sun West Custom Homes, you can sit back and enjoy the process. We do it all, starting with the design of your home. We know that having our own team of professionals who can handle the architectural and interior designs along with building your home makes for a less stressful experience for you.
Before we begin, we'll get detailed ideas from you about your preferences and visit your lot many times to determine just how your home should be designed. During the building phase, the Project Manager, Interior Designer, Project Coordinator, and On-Site Superintendent will focus on making sure your home comes in on time and on budget with the quality you expect.
Each project is assigned one of our knowledgeable Interior Designers to assist with choosing hardware and fixtures. Sun West Custom Homes also offers a far more extensive interior design service that focuses on the art of design, expanding creative possibilities for furnishings, accessories, specialty wall and window coverings, and anything else that makes your house your perfect home.

By keeping this whole process in-house, we believe the experience of building your dream home will be richer and more exciting.
We're here to help you handle the business of home sales and purchases. New clients, getting ready to build that dream home, often need assistance purchasing a lot on which to build. Sun West Luxury Realty Realtors® have the experience in custom home construction to know what type of house design works best on what type of lot. We're very knowledgeable about Las Vegas and the surrounding areas and can help in choosing the area that would be your best fit.

On the other side of the coin, some of our past clients who have built luxury homes with us are sometimes ready to sell those estate homes for various reasons. As the architectural designer and builder, we know the home inside and out and are the best to point out all the special features to potential buyers. It’s a perfect complement to the benefits of working with the Sun West family.
